

Coyotes Curling Club Core Values

Integrity

- We will work cooperatively, openly and honestly with curling associations, other curling clubs and our members in order to develop the sport of curling
- We will be transparent in our management, operations and planning
- We will only host events that will enhance the Club's good reputation and well-being
- We will strive at all times to demonstrate the highest ethical manner and play the sport of curling with etiquette
- We will represent our club at all levels, local, national and international, with pride and professionalism

Equality

- We will encourage and offer membership in the club to all; regardless of cultural background.
- We will treat all curlers with equality and respect regardless of their abilities on and off the ice.
- We will respect sexual orientation and not differentiate on that basis
- We will be an inclusive and accessible club that is prepared for the disabled, hearing and vision impaired, autism spectrum and meet all ADA requirements

Excellence

- We will work diligently to be the best we can be in everything we do.
- We will balance the utility of the facility to generate revenue, without compromising our members, or the game of curling.

Fellowship

- We encourage volunteerism.
- We encourage sportsmanship.
- We encourage positive social interaction in all aspects of the usage of our Club
